

(Download ebook) ego trip's Big Book of Racism!

ego trip's Big Book of Racism!

Sacha Jenkins, Elliott Wilson, Chairman Jefferson Mao, Gabriel Alvarez, Brent Rollins
audiobook | *ebooks | Download PDF | ePub | DOC

 Download

 Read Online

#754796 in Books 2002-10-15 2002-10-15Ingredients: Example IngredientsOriginal language:EnglishPDF #1 10.00 x .78 x 8.00l, 1.89 #File Name: 0060988967304 pages | File size: 75.Mb

Sacha Jenkins, Elliott Wilson, Chairman Jefferson Mao, Gabriel Alvarez, Brent Rollins : ego trip's Big Book of Racism! before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised ego trip's Big Book of Racism!:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Needs to be RepublishedBy EmmieI bought this book more than five years ago and seem to have lost that copy. It appears this copy was at least as old as my first one, because the last 1/3 chunk of pages just fell out of the book as soon as I left it open today, the day it was delivered. The content of the book is a satirical take on race, so if that's appealing to you, then you might like it. The fact that my copy dissolved upon opening probably shouldn't stop you from getting it, but they really should print new copies.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fast DeliveryBy BreeI emailed read the book previously but wanted to order a copy for a friend. No review on the content but I am happy that it arrived so quickly. The price is worth it. Thank you!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great Read!!By Bossy P.Wish I would had Bought this book years ago!Also hoping for an update, the book covers racial issues until early 2000s.The book arrived fast and in excellent condition. Would definitely recommend to others, I wish there was more pictures. I bought this as a gift and ended up keeping it for myself!

Ferociously intelligent one moment, willfully smart-ass the next, ego trip's Big Book of Racism is a glorious, hilarious conflation of the racial undercurrents that affect contemporary culture at every turn. This one-of-a-kind encounter with the absurdities, complexities, and nuances of race relations is brought to you by five writers of color whose groundbreaking independent magazine, ego trip, has been called "the world's rawest, stinkiest, funniest magazine" by Spin. Filled with enough testifying and truth to satisfy even the good Reverend Sharpton, ego trip's Big Book of Racism is a riotous and revolutionary look at race and popular culture that's sure to spark controversy and ignite debate.

From Publishers Weekly "Due to our strong personal convictions, we wish to stress that this book in no way endorses a belief in racism. We just hate everybody." So proclaim the folks behind this often funny, often offensive and appropriately bitter book(...) There are a few culls from the now-defunct ego trip magazine's pages, but most of the content is new and shameless: there's list journalism ("Professor Griff's Favorite Jewish People Some of Whom Also Happen to be Friends"; "60 Notable Moments in Interracial Luv 'N' Lust"), essays ("Fear of a Black Pool Party"), parodies of some easy targets (TV Guide, magazine quizzes) and some harder ones (MAD Magazine, which is itself an organ of parody), and digs at some others that deserve it (professional sports). The writing is sharp and to the point, and though there's plenty of silly stuff ("Who are the Black Muppets?"; the "hidden hate" in Wite Out and watermelon seeds), the underlying message is dead serious: racism pervades every aspect of culture, from travel books to television. Anyone who can call himself Chairman Mao must have a very thick coat of irony to protect himself—should prospective readers, some of whom will remember ego trip's Book of Rap Lists, "hip hop's answer to the telephone book, you pity-party patsies." 3-color illus. throughout. Copyright 2002 Reed Business Information, Inc.